LTChaplaincy News

Chapel Electrical Works

The electrical works are well underway now; the Chapel and the Chaplaincy lounge remain closed. We have temporarily moved offices whilst the works are going on to The Bede Centre. You can find us in SB34, 35 and 36! Please bear with us as we wait for these essential works to be completed (due the end of May).

'Chaplaincy Tuesdays'

Since so many students are away on placement at the moment, we won't be running a Chaplaincy Tuesday every week as normal.

HOWEVER, the next one will be worth the wait...

Tues 4th June: BBQ Social!

We'll be heading across the road to our friends, the Comboni Fathers, for our annual, end of year BBQ and we can't wait! Plenty of food, drink, and great company as we end the year together in the sun (we're confident!)

Absolutely anybody is welcome, there's no cost to attend, and we'd love you to come!

We'll be walking over together from the Atrium at 6pm.

Catholicism for the Curious, Wednesdays, 2pm, Chaplaincy Landing

If you are interested in what Catholics believe, what Catholics do, and why they believe and do it, then come along to an informal chat to find out more on Wednesdays on the Chaplaincy Landing. All welcome, no previous Catholic knowledge or experience required.

Tea on the Landing, Wednesdays 12.30am-12noon, Atrium

Join us every Wednesday during term for tea on the landing in the Atrium where we will serve you your favourite breakfast treats including fruit toast, waffles and crumpets, which you can wash down with a freshly brewed pot of tea. It is all FREE (!) but donations are welcome.

Tea on Tour

It's that time of year again where we bring breakfast to you! Tea on the Landing will be 'on tour' on Friday 7th June in the Students' Union and Friday 14th June in Trinity Fitness! So if you would like an extra helping of waffles, or another round of crumpets, come along!
