

PGCE Primary with QTS

We offer both Provider-led and School Direct
Postgraduate provision
leading to the award of QTS

Provider-led Primary PGCE

The Leeds Trinity University PGCE Primary (3-7) and (5-11) QTS are professionally oriented programmes that enable you to engage with a wide range of educational issues. They are designed to develop the teaching and learning role through reflective practice.

Benefits of PGCE Primary (3-7) and (5-11) QTS

- Leeds Trinity University is a well-established and widely-respected institution with an excellent reputation for teacher education. Because of this reputation, we have strong relationships with schools in partnership for training teachers throughout the region.
- The programme is designed in three stages to provide a gradual and supportive induction into teaching.
- Both programmes allow you to train in the specified age range. Within stage 3 there is an opportunity to pursue a specific area of personal interest to support your professional profile.
- Throughout all three placements, you will be strongly supported by mentors at Leeds Trinity and the schools.
- You will be assessed on your coursework and against the Teachers' Standards during Assessed Teaching Blocks.

Programme Content and Structure

The PGCE course is designed in three stages to provide a gradual and supportive induction into teaching. Throughout all three placements you will be strongly supported by Leeds Trinity University and school-based mentors. You will be assessed on your coursework and against the Teachers' Standards during Assessed Teaching Blocks.

Stage 1

- Professional Learning and Teaching for the 21st Century Teacher.
- Subject Knowledge and Applied Pedagogy (curriculum understanding in English, Maths, Science & DT, FL, PE, History, Geography, ICT and Art).
- PGCE 3-7 have input from Early Years Specialist Teachers in partnership schools in the Early Years Foundation Stage and Key Stage One curriculum.
- Weekly visits to school-based training placement and a school-based training block.
- Professional Learning and Development (Becoming a Reflective Practitioner).

Stage 2

- Professional Learning and Teaching for the 21st Century Teacher.
- Subject Knowledge and Applied Pedagogy (curriculum understanding in English, Maths, Geography, RE, Art and Music).

- Weekly serial visits to school-based training block placement.
- Professional Learning and Development (Becoming a Reflective Practitioner).

Stage 3

University-based training includes:

- Legal responsibilities
- Professional expectations
- Preparation for career entry and the NQT year
- Developing specialist interest
- Assessed Teaching Block.

Qualification

Leeds Trinity University provides the opportunity to pursue a specific area of personal interest and specialism, and to be qualified to Postgraduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) Level 7 with Qualified Teacher Status (QTS).

If you are interested in the Primary PGCE Provider-led route contact admissions@leedstrinity.ac.uk

Facilities

All of our Primary Education classrooms have the resources available for you to practise with the equipment used in schools including: interactive whiteboards, Early Years resources, ICT suites, art and DT resources.

Our taught sessions balance theoretical input and debate with practical learning activities at both your own - and the children's - level.

School Direct Primary PGCE

School Direct partnerships provide opportunities for you to work in a school environment for most of your training.

Graduates interested in becoming a teacher may prefer to complete Initial Teacher Education with a particular partnership of schools under the School Direct PGCE programme for primary and secondary. Leeds Trinity University provides the quality assurance with partnership schools.

Qualification

Leeds Trinity University provides the opportunity to pursue a specific area of personal interest and specialism, and to be qualified to Postgraduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) Level 7 with Qualified Teacher Status (QTS). Some trainees choose to continue their study and complete a full Masters as part of their Continued Professional Development (CPD).

Benefits

Programmes have been designed by schools and the University to ensure that you are receiving high-quality, 'hands-on' training that is also well grounded with the appropriate theoretical frameworks.

Training is led by both school staff and University tutors.

Though the programme is more school-based than traditional PGCE courses, you are not 'thrown in at the deep-end'. The course follows a well-structured three stage programme with Assessed Blocks of training in two different schools within the partnership.

Some partnerships have places to train students who wish to specialise in the 3-7 age range, as well as places for the 5-11 programme. This will be reflected on UCAS under the Lead School's profile and registered as a separate course code.

All School Direct courses lead to a Postgraduate Certificate in Education (Level 7).

Employment by the lead school or one of its partner schools is common on successful completion of the PGCE.

In 2018-19 Leeds Trinity University's School Direct programme is working with a wide variety of school partnerships:

Academies Enterprise Trust (AET)

School-based Training

FOR PROVIDER-LED TRAINEES Leeds Trinity University has partnerships with schools across the West Yorkshire region (Leeds, Bradford, Calderdale, Kirklees and Wakefield) and further afield. Placements are negotiated with schools and trainees so that they take account of the personal circumstances of trainees. FOR SCHOOL DIRECT TRAINEES you will train within schools associated with the lead school for the alliance or partnership.

Assessment

In order to be eligible for Qualified Teacher Status (QTS), you must demonstrate your ability to meet the assessment criteria laid down by Leeds Trinity University and the Department for Education. More information about the Teachers' Standards can be found through the National College for Teaching and Leadership (NCTL). Assessment is through graded coursework assignments and school-based training. There are no examinations. Assessments are designed to enable you to critically reflect on practice.

At the end of each stage, a range of assessments in the form of presentations, evaluations and reflective reports on aspects of professional practice are submitted. The Assessed Teaching Blocks must be completed successfully to proceed to the next stage.

Entry Requirements

Normal entry requirements for the Primary PGCE are: an honours degree at 2ii or above; GCSE English, Maths and Science at grade C or above; a satisfactory enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) and a satisfactory medical check. You will also need to have passed the professional skills test.

In order to be able to fulfil the requirements of the course you will need to be able to demonstrate prior experience/knowledge of work/work experience/voluntary work in a primary setting. We treat every applicant on their own merits and value highly the experience you illustrate in your personal statement.

“I chose Leeds Trinity University because of the positive experiences I had on my undergraduate course and the reputation Leeds Trinity University has for producing quality teachers. I decided I would first develop my area of specialism through a subject specific undergraduate programme before embarking on my PGCE.”

Jonny Gibbons

Application Procedure

Access to the course is through completion of a written application form through UCAS ucas.com/apply/teacher-training
Early application is advised as places are limited.

The Interview Process

Applicants who are successfully shortlisted from their application will be invited to interview which will include a professional discussion on personal goals and educational experiences. Applicants will also be asked to plan a lesson and deliver a short teaching session (part of their planned lesson). They will then be asked a number of questions related to their plan and delivery and write a reflective self-audit.

The remaining successful candidates will be invited to take part in an action planning day prior to the start of the programme.

Fees and Funding

The information on this page relates to 2017/18 fees.

Tuition Fees

UK and EU trainees will not have to pay anything for their tuition while they are studying or until after they have graduated and are working and earning £21,000 or above. Trainees can take out a tuition fee loan from the Student Loans Company to cover the cost of their tuition fees.

Leeds Trinity University will be charging an annual tuition fee of £9,250 for ITT courses in 2017/18 for UK and EU trainees and £11,750 for non-EU trainees.

Financial support

Trainees from England can apply for a package of support from Student Finance England to help with tuition fee and maintenance costs. Trainees from Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales can apply to their relevant funding bodies (see overleaf for contact details) for a similar package of support. EU students can apply to the Student Finance non-UK Team for a tuition fee loan, but are not entitled to maintenance support. Students studying a non-standard length course will not be eligible for student finance.

Tuition Fee Loan

The Tuition Fee Loan covers the cost of the tuition fees and is paid directly from the Student Loans Company to the University.

Support for living costs

Trainees from England will also be able to apply for a maintenance loan of up to £8,430 (or up to £7,097 for trainees who live with their parents) to help with basic living costs while they are studying (such as accommodation, food, travel, course costs etc.). How much you are eligible to receive is based on household income. The loan is repaid once you have graduated and are earning over £21,000. For more information visit gov.uk/student-finance

Repayment of loans

The tuition fee loan and maintenance loan do not have to be repaid until the April after you graduate or leave your course. You will only make repayments if you are earning over £21,000. You repay 9% of what you earn over £21,000. For example, if your salary was £25,000 you would repay 9% of £4,000 which is a monthly repayment of £30. More information and examples of what you would repay monthly based on your income can be found at gov.uk/student-finance

How much interest you pay depends on whether you are studying and how much you are earning. You can find out more about interest rates at gov.uk/student-finance

Bursaries and Funding

ITT Bursaries are provided by the National College for Teaching and Leadership (NCTL). The bursaries vary depending on which ITT course subject you are planning to study and the highest degree you currently hold.

Full details of financial support for trainees can be found at getintoteaching.education.gov.uk

Additional funding

If you have children or adults who depend on you financially you may be entitled to extra means tested grants such as a Parents Learning Allowance of up to £1,617 and a Childcare Grant to help towards the costs of childcare. Trainees with a disability and/or dyslexia may be eligible for a non means- tested Disabled Students' Allowance to help with extra study costs.

For more information visit gov.uk/student-finance

Students on a salaried route are not eligible for funding. Please check the website for updates for 2018/2019.

How to Apply

Applications must be made through UCAS Teacher Training at ucas.com/apply/teacher-training

Early applications are recommended as the programme will no longer be available once target numbers are met.

After you apply all providers have 40 working days to reach a final decision on your application. This includes any interviews. You then have 10 working days after receiving your last decision to make your acceptance.
